WYCLIFFE “WYC” GROUSBECK

Managing Partner, Governor and Chief Executive Officer

Wycliffe Grousbeck has been Managing Partner, Governor and CEO of the Boston Celtics since December 2002, after organizing and leading a local investment group that purchased the team.

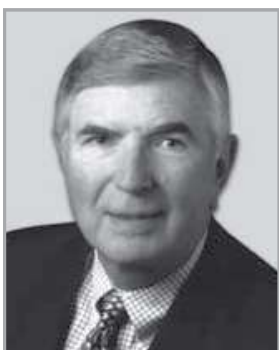

Wyc named the investment group “Banner 17 LLC” to signify his primary goal, returning the Celtics to contention for their 17th World Championship. That goal was achieved on June 17, 2008, as the Celtics defeated the Lakers by 39 points and became World Champions for the first time in 22 years.

In January 2010 Wyc became Chairman of the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary. Mass. Eye and Ear is a teaching hospital of Harvard Medical School and has been a world leader in advanced research and patient care, preventing and treating vision and hearing loss, for almost 200 years. It is the largest vision research center in the world. Wyc’s family has been touched by blindness, and he and his family have been devoted to research and educational initiatives relating to blindness and other conditions for many years.

Prior to purchasing the Celtics with his partners, Wyc served as a General Partner of Highland Capital Partners, co-managing $1.8 billion in venture capital funds. He led successful investments in medical technology, software and health care services. His earlier career included four years as a venture capital lawyer in Silicon Valley and two years as a manager in a public biotech company.

His wife, Corinne, is Founder and Chair of the Trust Board at Perkins School for the Blind (Watertown, MA), an institution devoted to educating blind and deaf/blind students worldwide. Corinne has also served for many years on the Trust Board of Children’s Hospital Boston. Wyc and Corinne are also involved in the Boston Celtics Shamrock Foundation; Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston; National Braille Press; Horizons for Homeless Children; Cradles to Crayons; and the Lovelane Special Needs Riding Program.

Wyc holds a bachelor’s degree in history from Princeton University (1983), a law degree from the University of Michigan (1986) and an MBA from Stanford Business School where he was a Miller Scholar (1992). At Princeton he rowed on the undefeated varsity eight that claimed the Ivy League and national rowing championships in 1983.

H. IRVING GROUSBECK • Managing Partner

H. Irving Grousbeck is a Managing Partner of the Boston Celtics as well as an Executive Committee Member.

Father of Managing Partner & Governor Wyc Grousbeck, Mr. Grousbeck is a Consulting Professor of Management at Stanford University’s Graduate School of Business, and co-head of the school’s Center for Entrepreneurial Studies. His teaching focuses on an objective means to develop a greater understanding of the issues faced by entrepreneurial companies and individuals. In addition to his professorial duties, Grousbeck co-authored the textbook New Business Ventures and the Entrepreneur. From 1981 to 1985, he was a lecturer at Harvard University’s Graduate School of Business Administration.

In 1963, Grousbeck co-founded Continental Cablevision and went on to serve as that company’s President from 1964 to 1980 and Chairman of the Board from 1980 to 1985. Continental Cablevision was sold to U.S. West Media Group in November 1996.

Mr. Grousbeck is a graduate of Amherst College and the Harvard Business School. He was awarded an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree by Amherst College in 2000. He serves on a number of private company boards and was formerly a Trustee of Children’s Hospital Boston, Newton-Wellesley Hospital, New England Eye Bank, the Hewlett Foundation, and the Massachusetts Board of Higher Education.

STEPHEN PAGLIUCA • Managing Partner

Steve Pagliuca is a Managing Partner, Co-Owner and Chairman of the Basketball Committee of the World Championship Boston Celtics Basketball franchise. He helped the Celtics partnership formulate its initial business plan, develop the basketball strategy and build the ownership group. As Chairman of the Basketball Committee and as an alternate member of the NBA Board of Governors, he has focused on the development of the Celtics basketball strategy and operations. Mr. Pagliuca is the President of the Boston Celtics Shamrock Foundation. The Shamrock Fund helps children gain access to housing, healthcare and other services in partnership with local charities. The Shamrock Foundation has become a leader in community outreach in professional sports.

He is a Managing Director at Bain Capital, a leading global private investment firm, based in Boston.

Bain Capital provides capital and expertise to a wide range of companies from start ups to multi-billion dollar enterprises. He has been a long time active investor in the media, financial services and healthcare industries and has helped to build Bain Capital into one of the world's leading investment companies.

Mr. Pagliuca is on the Board of Directors of HCA (Hospital Corporation of America) the USA's leading hospital group; The Weather Channel, the leader in national and local weather forecasting; and Gartner Group, the premier technology analysis firm.

Mr. Pagliuca also serves as the Chairman of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, a nonprofit society with a legacy of strengthening families and preventing child abuse. Mr. Pagliuca is also a Trustee of Bain Capital Children's Charity, the firm's initiative to support children's causes, which has donated over $33 million for worthy organizations since its inception in 1997. Mr. Pagliuca received the Bright Star Award from President Bill Clinton in recognition of his charitable activities and the American Dream Award from Habitat for Humanity for outstanding contributions to enhancing the Greater Boston Community.

Mr. Pagliuca received a B.A. magna cum laude from Duke University where he also played freshman basketball. He earned a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) certificate in the State of North Carolina and has an M.B.A. from the Harvard Business School.

Steve and his wife, Judy, have four children and live in Weston, Massachusetts.

THE ABBEY GROUP • Managing Partner

Robert Epstein is a Managing Partner of the Boston Celtics and represents The Abbey Group on the Celtics Managing Board and Executive Committee. He is a principal at The Abbey Group, a Boston-based real estate management and development company, with his partner and Celtics co-investor David Epstein. The Abbey Group is known in Boston as the developer of many successful real estate properties, including the notable 1.5 million square foot Landmark Center mixed-use development that anchors a prime area between Fenway Park and the Longwood Medical area in Boston, Lafayette Corporate Center, a newly re-developed 650,000 square foot office center in Boston's Downtown Crossing and 45 Province, a 32-story condominium tower, located at the intersection of Beacon Hill and Government Center.

Robert Epstein is currently a partner and Chief Executive Officer of The Abbey Group, overseeing all aspects of the group's operations. His reputation as a knowledgeable and innovative developer led to his appointment to several key advisory committees, including the Massachusetts Convention Center Authority and the Strategic Initiatives Committee of the Massachusetts Industrial Finance Agency, and also serves as a Trustee of Bard College.

The partners of The Abbey Group, Robert and David, individually and corporately, support many of Boston's cultural institutions and serve on several Boards and Committee's including Citi Performing Arts Center, Museum of Fine Arts, the Huntington Theatre Company, Horizons for Homeless Children, and The Anti-Defamation League.

Robert Epstein*David Epstein

PAUL EDGERLEY • Executive Committee Member

Paul Edgerley is a member of the Boston Celtics Executive Committee. As a member of the Executive Committee, he consults on the team's business and financial matters as well as the team's community and charitable activities.

Paul is a Managing Director of Bain Capital. He has helped build Bain Capital into a leading global private equity firm with over $64 billion capital under management with offices in Boston, Chicago, New York, London, Munich, Mumbai, Hong Kong, Shanghai and Tokyo.

Paul received an MBA, with Distinction, from Harvard Business School and is a Certified Public Accountant. He received a B.S. from Kansas State University.

He is currently involved on the boards of several charities including Kansas State University Foundation, The Shamrock Foundation, New Profit, Inc. and the US Board of The Right to Play. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of Steel Dynamics, Sensata Technologies, MEI Conlux, HD Supply and Hero MotoCorp.

He lives in the greater Boston area with his wife, Sandy, and their four children.

GLENN HUTCHINS • Executive Committee Member

Mr. Hutchins is co-founder of Silver Lake, which is one of the world's largest firms investing in technology and technology-enabled businesses. Mr. Hutchins is chairman of the board of SunGard Corp. and a director of the NASDAQ OMX Group, Inc. and Mercury Payment Systems.

RICH GOTHAM • Team President

Rich Gotham is in his tenth season with the 17-time world Champion Boston Celtics and his sixth season as team President. In this role, he is responsible for all aspects of the Celtics business operations including sales, marketing, customer service, communications, corporate partnerships, business development, game entertainment, community and public relations, broadcast partnerships, and arena relations. In addition, he works closely with Celtics ownership, basketball operations staff, and the NBA on player transactions, as well as team and league related initiatives. He succeeds Arnold “Red” Auerbach as Celtics team President.

Rich joined the Celtics in April 2003. Prior to being named team President in April 2007, Rich served as Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President of Sales, Marketing and Corporate Development. Since joining the Celtics, Rich has been recognized for leading the team to new heights off the court. Under his leadership the team has established new records for attendance, ticket sales, sponsorship, merchandise revenue, and television ratings, contributing to the team’s first NBA Championship in twenty-two years in 2008, as well as five division titles, three Eastern Conference Finals, and two NBA Finals appearances. In addition, he has successfully led negotiations to extend the Celtics lease to play in the TD Garden, was responsible for moving the Celtics radio broadcasts to WEEI, and successfully negotiated a long-term media rights and broadcast agreement with Comcast SportsNet in 2011.

The Celtics are widely recognized as thought leaders in the business of sports and the team’s business achievements during Rich’s tenure have been chronicled by The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, Investors’ Business Daily, Bloomberg, Reuters, CNBC, and Fox Business News. During the 2008-2009 season the Celtics were recognized as the top franchise in all of professional sports by both The Sports Business Journal and BizJournals. With and over 6 million followers on Facebook, and 700,000 on Twitter, the Celtics have pioneered sports digital marketing and fan engagement, aggregating the second largest digital following in all of North American Sports.

Rich joined the Celtics after five years with the global internet media company, Terra-Lycos, where he served as Vice President of Sales and Business Development and was responsible for generating revenues in excess of $300 million annually. While at Lycos, he was part of a senior-management team that exceeded Wall Street analyst expectations for revenue and profitability growth for nineteen (19) consecutive quarters and played an integral role in helping to grow the Lycos Network into the most visited web site on the Internet in 2001. In addition, he sat on the Board of Directors for the Internet Advertising Bureau participating in the creation of multiple new internet advertising standards.

In addition to his duties with the Celtics, Rich has served on then-Massachusetts Governor Mitt Romney’s Committee for Physical Fitness and Sport and currently serves as a board member for The Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce, The Sports Museum of New England, and the National Sports Marketing Network. He also serves on the Board of Advisors for Wilmington Trust and The Board of Overseers at Providence College, where he also serves on the President’s Council and Varsity Athletic Committee. He is very active in multiple charitable and fundraising initiatives on behalf of the Boston Celtics Shamrock Foundation, for which he is a board member.

A graduate of Providence College, Rich currently resides in Medfield, MA along with his wife and three children.

DANNY AINGE • President of Basketball Operations

Danny Ainge is beginning his ninth season as Celtics President of Basketball Operations. He was named to the position on May 9, 2003.

During his 14-year playing career, Ainge won two World Championships with Boston (1984, 1986) and appeared in six NBA Finals (four with Boston). He finished his career third in NBA playoff history for games played (193) and sixth in most three-pointers made (172). He also finished eighth in three-pointers attempted (433). Upon his retirement, Ainge was one of three players in NBA history to make 1,000 or more career three-pointers (1,002), along with Dale Ellis and Reggie Miller.

Following his playing career, Ainge joined TNT as a color analyst for the 1995-96 season before returning to the court with the Phoenix Suns as an Assistant Coach prior to the 1996-97 season. Just eight games into the season he was promoted to Head Coach and guided this club to a 40-34 record after the team started the season 0-8. He spent the next two-plus seasons as Head Coach of the Suns and compiled a 136-90 (.602) record before stepping down on December 13, 1999 and returning to TNT as an analyst. In his three-plus seasons as the Suns coach, he guided Phoenix to three playoff berths.

Ainge enjoyed a storybook collegiate career at Brigham Young University from 1977-1981. He won the 1981 John Wooden and Eastman Awards as the nation's best college basketball player following his senior season, when he averaged 24.4 points per game. At North Eugene (Ore.) High School, Ainge was an All-American in basketball, football and baseball. Selected by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 1977 free agent draft (15th round), he played three seasons of Major League Baseball while still attending BYU. Ainge was inducted into Oregon State Sports Hall of Fame in August 1999 and was the first player in BYU history to have his jersey number (#22) retired.

In January, 2006, Ainge received the NCAA's Silver Anniversary Award, an award that recognizes former student-athletes who completed their successful collegiate career and then went on to excel in their chosen profession.

For his shrewd off-season acquisitions that led the Celtics to their NBA record 17th Championship, Ainge was named as The Sporting News 2008 NBA Executive of the Year.

Danny and his wife, Michelle, have six children: Ashlee, Austin, Tanner, Taylor, Cooper and Crew, and eight grandchildren: Sage, Cason, Andre, Siena, Oscar, Oliver, Finley and Eloise.

MICHAEL ZARRENAssistant General Manager & Team Counsel*

A lifelong Celtics fan and season ticket holder, Michael Zarren is now the Celtics' Assistant General Manager and Team Counsel. Now in his tenth year with the team after starting as an unpaid intern, Zarren is widely recognized as one of the leaders in the field of advanced statistical analysis of basketball players and teams, and is an important part of the team's strategic planning and player personnel evaluation processes. Zarren is also the team's salary cap expert and lead in-house counsel (for both basketball and business-side issues), and is responsible for the development of new technologies for team use, including the team's best-in-class statistical database and video archive/delivery system.

A graduate of Harvard Law School (where he served as editor-in-chief of the Harvard Journal of Law and Technology) and of the University of Chicago, Zarren has also served as a law clerk on the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Zarren was also previously a management consultant for Fortune 500 firms across a wide variety of industries. A native of Swampscott, Zarren is a member of the bars of New York and Massachusetts and of the Board of Overseers of The Waring School.

RYAN MCDONOUGH • Assistant General Manager

Ryan McDonough is entering his second season as the Assistant General Manager. He was named to the position in September 2010 after spending two seasons as the team's Director of Player Personnel, one season as the Director of International Scouting; one season as Director of Amateur Scouting and four years as a Special Assistant to Basketball Operations.

McDonough assists President of Basketball Operations Danny Ainge on all basketball related matters, focusing primarily on evaluating college and international players for the NBA Draft.

Ryan attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, graduating in 2002 with a degree in Journalism & Mass Communication.

McDonough grew up in Hingham, Massachusetts and currently resides in Boston.

AUSTIN AINGE • Director of Player Personnel

Austin Ainge enters his second season with the Celtics as the team's Director of Player Personnel. Ainge rejoined the organization after spending two seasons as the Head Coach of the Maine Red Claws of the NBA Development League (2009-11). Ainge previously worked for the team during the 2008-09 season as a scout. Ainge has previously worked at Southern Utah University where he was responsible for perimeter players, recruiting, player development, video breakdown, and developing game plans. Before coaching he had a very successful playing career at Brigham Young University, where he was a two-year captain and won 2 Mountain West Conference Championships. While at BYU Austin went to 3 NCAA tournaments and one NIT. His senior year Austin was one of the top three point shooters in the nation and led the conference by shooting .525 from behind the arc in conference play.

Before playing at BYU, Austin put his basketball career on hold and served a two-year mission for his church, living in and serving the communities in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic where he learned to speak fluent Spanish. Austin is married to the former Crystal Bluth and has two sons, Andre and Finley.

GLENN "DOC" RIVERS • Head Coach

Glenn "Doc" Rivers starts his ninth season as Head Coach of the Boston Celtics. He was named to the position on April 29, 2004, becoming the 16th Head Coach in franchise history.

Rivers guided the 2007-08 Celtics to their 17th NBA championship behind an NBA-best 66-16 regular season record which also was his best coaching record in a single season. During the course of the 2007-08 season he received NBA Coach of the Month three times. He is the only Celtics coach since the award's inception during the 1982-83 season to win the award three times. He joins K.C. Jones, Jimmy Rodgers and Chris Ford as the only Celtics

Head Coach's to have won the award.

In his first season as Head Coach of the Boston Celtics Rivers led the club to a 45-37 (.549) record as well as the team's first Atlantic Division title since the 1991-92 season.

Rivers is only the fourth coach in franchise history to have earned the NBA Coach of the Year Award, joining Tom Heinsohn (1972-73), Bill Fitch (who won it with Cleveland (1975-76) and Boston (1979-80)) and Red Auerbach (1964-65), for whom the trophy is named.

In the five years that Rivers has coached the Celtics, he has amassed a record of 230-180. Rivers won his 100th game as the Celtics Head Coach on 3/28/07 against his former team, the Orlando Magic in a thrilling 105-96 double OT win at the TD Garden. Rivers won his 200th game as the Celtics Head Coach against New Jersey on 1/14/09 in a decisive 118-86 victory. Rivers now has a career coaching record of 401-348 (.535).

Rivers, born on October 13, 1961, spent four plus seasons as the Head Coach of the Orlando Magic. In his first year at the helm in Orlando he led a team predicted by most to finish near or at the bottom of the league that included four starters who were not drafted. Rivers guided the team to a 41-41 record, and for his efforts, Rivers was named the 1999-2000 NBA Coach-of-the-Year.

Despite having eight new players and the loss of six-time All-Star Grant Hill to injury in 2000-01, Rivers led the Orlando Magic to a 43-39 (.524) record, including a franchise record tying nine-game winning streak and posted a 24-17 (.585) record during the second half of the season, which led to a berth in the 2001 NBA Playoffs.

During the 2001-02 campaign, Rivers helped the Magic improve on their previous season, finishing with a 44-38 (.537) record and their second straight playoff berth. Once again Rivers led the Magic to a strong second half with a 24-17 (.585) record.

In 2002-03 Rivers and the Magic finished with a 42-40 (.512) record and their third consecutive trip to the playoffs. Despite battling numerous injuries and starting 21 different lineups, the Magic finished the second half of the season with a strong playoff push, in typical Rivers fashion, with a 22-19 (.537) record.

Rivers served as an analyst, paired with Al Michaels, for ABC Sports coverage of the NBA in 2003-04, following his release from the Magic on November 17, 2003. Overall he compiled a 171-168 record (.506) in his four-plus seasons as Orlando's Head Coach, advancing the team to the playoffs three times.

Rivers played 13 seasons in the NBA for the Atlanta Hawks (1983-84 to 1990-91), Los Angeles Clippers (1991-92), New York Knicks (1992-93 to 1993-94) and San Antonio Spurs (1994 to 1995-96). He played for three of the game's top coaches in Pat Riley, Larry Brown and Mike Fratello, and holds career averages of 10.9 points, 5.7 assists and 3.0 rebounds per game. His teams advanced to the NBA Playoffs 10 times, where he averaged 11.4 points, 5.9 assists and 3.3 rebounds. Rivers saw action in 864 regular season games and 81 playoff games over the course of his career.

Rivers averaged a double-double in 1986-87 (12.8 points per game, 10.0 assists per game) and was selected to play in the 1988 NBA All-Star Game. He averaged a career-best 15.2 points per game in 1990-91. He scored a career-high 37 points against Seattle on February 4, 1988. He also shares an NBA single-game playoff record for most assists in one half (15 vs. Boston, May 16, 1988).

Drafted after his junior season out of Marquette by the Atlanta Hawks in the second round (31st overall) of the 1983 NBA Draft, he played the first eight years of his career with Atlanta, setting the Hawks' single-season assists record with 823 in 1986-87, and ending his stint with the team as the franchise's all-time assist leader with 3,866.

A product of Proviso East High School in Maywood, Illinois, Rivers earned the nickname "Doc" from former Marquette coach Rick Majerus, when he wore a "Dr. J" t-shirt to a summer basketball camp. Rivers played for the United States at the 1982 World Championship of Basketball, leading the U.S. to a silver medal and earning tournament MVP honors after averaging a team-best 18.6 points per game. During the summer of 2001, he served as an assistant coach for the USA Men's Basketball Team at the Goodwill Games in Brisbane, Australia, that captured the Gold Medal.

Rivers earned a pre-law/political science degree from Marquette in 1985 and was honored by the Pro Basketball Writers with the 1990 J. Walter Kennedy Basketball Citizenship Award. Following the 1999-2000 season, Rivers was named Male Coach-of-the-Year at the Rainbow Sports Awards, which reflect not only accomplishments in the sports industry, but also the grace, dignity, commitment and humanity each individual exemplifies.

He is also active in the community, being a member of the All-Star Advisory Council for the Jr. NBA and Jr. WNBA youth basketball support program, offering instrumental guidance to the player, coach and parent training efforts for recreational youth basketball leagues across the country.

Rivers is the nephew of former NBA player Jim Brewer, and the cousin of former NBA player Byron Irvin and baseball player Ken Singleton. Rivers and his wife, Kris, have four children: Jeremiah, Callie, Austin and Spencer.

PRACTICE INFORMATION

All Celtics practice sessions are closed to the media, except for the final 30 minutes per NBA policy. Additionally, the coaches office, the training room, the weight room, the back hallway, and the locker room are off limits to the media at all times. All media interviews will be conducted after each practice on the gym floor. One-on-one interviews expected to last longer than 15 minutes need to be prearranged through the Celtics Media Relations Department. Only accredited media will be allowed to attend Celtics practices, as all practices are closed to the general public. The Celtics will usually hold practice at the Training Center in Waltham, MA (see directions below). The Press Room is available to work and wait. PHOTOGRAPHERS & VIDEOGRAPHERS: Practices are closed to all video and still photographers, except for the final 30 minutes which will be open for B-Roll. Players and coaches will be available for interviews at the conclusion of practice. Should a private room be needed for a one-on-one interview, arrangements must be made through the Celtics Media Relations Department in advance. Live shots for TV are to be shot from the apron on the playing floor. All videographers, reporters, photographers are barred from the playing surface of the court. PRACTICE TIMES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE. Friends, family or guests of media members are not permitted at practices or shootarounds without the prior consent from the Media Relations Department.

SHOOTAROUNDS

Generally, the Celtics shootarounds will take place at the The Training Center at HealthPoint. All shootarounds are closed to the media, with interviews following for a 15-minute period. SHOOTAROUND TIMES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE.

DIRECTIONS TO PRACTICE FACILITY

The Training Center at HealthPoint from Boston: Take the Mass Pike (Route 90 West), go to the second set of toll booths at Weston, MA. Follow signs for Route 128 North. Travel approximately five miles to Exit 27B (Winter Street). Bear right off the ramp, travel two miles, and follow signs to the facility. Please enter the facility through the main entrance for the Boston Sports Club. Travel time from Logan International Airport is approximately 30 minutes.

PRACTICES AT THE TD GARDEN

Access to any Celtics practice held at the TD Garden is through the same press gate entrance as on game nights. Season credentials will give you access to these practices as well. Those media members without season credentials should call the Media Relations office the day before a practice to be properly admitted.

TD GARDEN PARKING

There is no reserved or validated parking for a Celtics game. There is a five-level, 1,150-space underground parking garage located directly under the TD Garden and North Station. The parking lot is accessible via Nashua Street. Additionally, there is limited parking available in the immediate area of the TD Garden.

SEASON CREDENTIALS

The Celtics will issue full season credentials, which will be limited to the working media that have covered 75% or more of our home games in past years. For those media members who receive this pass, your photo will accompany it. Be advised that this pass is required at each game and must be displayed at all times.

SINGLE-GAME CREDENTIALS

Media members wishing to cover an individual home game must contact the Media Relations Department by fax or email at least 48 hours in advance of that game they wish to cover (or by 5:00 p.m. Thursday for all weekend and Monday games). Single-game passes will be issued on a space-available basis. NBA passes are valid but the Celtics require that you also arrange for a single-game pass from the Media Relations office or staff. The credentials must be confirmed by the Media Relations staff before admittance.

PHOTOGRAPHERS AND TV VIDEOGRAPHERS CREDENTIALS

Season credentials will not be issued to still photographers or television videographers. Credentialed photographers, upon presentation of proper identification at the press gate for each game, must sit at their designated location at the baseline. Photographers will not be allowed to sit on the sidelines at the TD Garden, as any area not specified as space for photographers is off-limits. No photography of any Celtics game shall be released to any individual other than the entity for whom the pass was issued and subject to the rules governing such use as described on the reverse side of the credential. Any variation to this policy will result in forfeiture of future credentials. Single-game photographer and videographer credentials will be issued on a space-available basis. No photographer or videographer is allowed to sit in the three-foot escape lanes, located on both sides of both basket stanchions. All working cameras must have a rubber lens shade per NBA policy. Single-game photographer and videographer passes must be requested at least 48 hours prior to the game they wish to cover.

PRESS GATE ENTRANCE

The press gate is located on the east side of the TD Garden on Legends Way. The press gate will open two hours prior to game time. Celtics season credentials will not allow access to any event in the TD Garden other than a Celtics game.

PRESS ROOM

The press room consists of the dining facility and the working press area located on level three of the TD Garden. After entering the building through the press entrance, proceed to the elevator to level three and the press room is straight ahead. Proper credentials are needed for admittance and a pregame meal. Food and beverage service will become available two hours prior to game time. We ask that professional and courteous consideration be given to the media who are working each game in the work areas. Phone lines and fax service are available for working media. Any special phone needs should be directed to the Celtics Media Relations Department or Lorraine Spadaro at the TD Garden at 617-624-1251.

PREGAME/POSTGAME ACCESS

Coach Rivers will be available to media approximately one hour prior to the scheduled tip-off in the hallway outside of the Celtics locker room. Roughly 10 minutes after each game, Coach Rivers will conduct his postgame press conference in Locker Room 6, which is across the hall from the Celtics locker room. Generally, the visiting Head Coach will conduct his postgame interview outside of the visiting team locker room.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS

The locker rooms are located on level three of the TD Garden (court level), down the corridor from the press room. Season credentials will have locker room access. Single-game passes will have locker room access but must have the locker room access portion of the press pass attached to the pass to allow for locker room entry. NBA media regulations govern the accessibility to the locker rooms prior to games. In accordance with NBA policy, both the Celtics and visitors locker rooms will be closed 45 minutes prior to game time and will re-open no later than 15 minutes after the game. No autographs are allowed during media access periods. Still photographers will not be permitted in any locker room. Cell phones are not allowed in either team locker room.

SEATING

Media will be assigned seats at either Section 20, the end zone seats, or in the main upper press box (level nine/"Halo"). Media members are encouraged to write from all of these locations due to space restrictions in the working area of the press room. The Media Relations Department will have the final say in all seating arrangements. We ask that you do not switch assigned seats; the Media Relations staff will coordinate any changes. The quarter play-by-play sheets and halftime box scores are distributed as quickly as possible to all locations and monitors are available in selected locales.

AUTOGRAPHS

All requests for autographs for any team personnel must be directed to the Celtics Community Relations Department. No autographs are allowed during media access periods.

VISITORS

There is no standing room in the TD Garden. All entrants to the building must have either a ticket to the game or a prearranged assigned seat.

PLAYER WARMUPS

The playing floor is off-limits to media personnel during pregame warmups. Players are available for interviews in the locker room during the access period only. Television and radio interviews must be arranged through the Celtics Media Relations Department, subject to timing and availability. Pregame media interview requests made well in advance are strongly recommended.

TICKETS

Media members who wish to purchase tickets to any Celtics home or road game are advised to request these tickets through the Celtics Media Relations Department or the Ticket Office. Effort will be made to fulfill each request; however, there is no guarantee that each request will be realized. Ticket requests made well in advance are strongly recommended.

TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

All media members who wish to cover any Celtics road games must notify the Celtics Media Relations staff by Friday of the preceding week. The Celtics will not make any hotel reservations for traveling media.

STATISTICAL AND PRESS RELEASE INFORMATION

Statistics, team and player information may be found on the Celtics web site at celtics.com. In addition, the NBA operates a 24-hour audio hotline and Fax Back information system throughout the season for members of the media only. Telephone numbers and access guidelines are available through the Celtics Media Relations Department. The Celtics also disseminate information to accredited members of the media through e-mail. Any members of the media wishing to receive press releases and other information via e-mail should contact the Celtics Media Relations Department.

TRADITION

Arnold “Red” Auerbach once proclaimed, “The Boston Celtics are not a basketball team, they are a way of life.” Auerbach, a member of the National Basketball Association since its formation in 1946, had been with the Celtics since 1950 until his passing in October of 2006.

Auerbach spent the first three seasons of his pro career with the Washington Capitols before moving on to the Tri-Cities Hawks for one campaign. At this point, Walter Brown, who owned the struggling Boston Celtics, appointed Auerbach as the man to lead the squad into what would ultimately become the greatest franchise in pro basketball annals.

Red carefully crafted a competitive team, and his moves culminated with an April 29, 1956 transaction that sent Ed Macauley and Cliff Hagan to St. Louis for the Hawks’ first-round pick.

With that selection, the Celtics chose Bill Russell. This blockbuster trade would spur the Celtics into the most dominant franchise in pro basketball history and helped spawn the legend that is Auerbach and the Celtics. From 1950-1966, Auerbach coached the Celtics to nine world titles, including eight in succession from 1959-1966. His incredible record was 938-479 (.662) in regular-season play and an equally impressive 99-69 (.589) in postseason encounters. Prior to the 1966-67 season, the “coach” removed himself from the bench in order to concentrate on his duties as General Manager, and appointed Bill Russell as player-coach.

With Red’s guidance and knowledge, the Celtics continued to win. In 1968 and 1969, the Celtics added two more titles. After a down period in the early 1970s, Auerbach restructured the team, adding key personnel through trades and the draft, and ultimately raised banners in 1974 and 1976. It was the subsequent years that would provide Auerbach with his biggest challenge, as the late ’70s proved to be a dismal period for the Celtics. Yet Auerbach once again saved the franchise with the shrewd selection of Larry Bird in the 1978 draft. Although he would have to wait a year before Bird could play in the NBA, Auerbach sensed that the Indiana native was the man to rejuvenate the proud organization. Five other teams had a shot at Bird, but all passed.

In 1981, Boston became the NBA champions again as Auerbach orchestrated another amazing trade, this time dealing the first and 13th picks in the 1981 draft to Golden State for Robert Parish and the third overall pick (Kevin McHale). Boston added two more titles in 1984 and 1986 thanks to the master’s keen additions of Danny Ainge, Dennis Johnson, Bill Walton, and others.

Auerbach has been the recipient of numerous distinguished awards and honors throughout his career. In 1968, he was enshrined in the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, MA for all his successes. When the NBA chose its Silver Anniversary Team honoring the best of the league’s first 25 years, Red was chosen as coach of that distinguished team. In 1982, he was elected to the Washington Hall of Stars, a Hall of Fame which involves people from all sports. Red was also honored as NBA Coach of the Year in 1965, winning the trophy that now bears his name, and NBA Executive of the Year in 1980. Also in that year, he was selected to the NBA’s 35th Anniversary Team as “Greatest Coach in the History of the NBA,” by the PBWAA.

In 1985, the Red Auerbach Fund, established in the great coach’s name, was created to promote athletic, recreational, and other youth development activities in Boston and throughout the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. January 4, 1985 was a special day in Red’s heart and in Boston sports history, as it was on this day that the Celtics family saluted its patriarch by having the number “2” retired in his honor (emblematic as the second most influential person in the organization’s annals; similarly, the number “1” is dedicated to the team’s founder, Walter Brown). On Red’s 68th birthday, September 20, 1985, a life-size sculpture of Auerbach was unveiled and placed in Boston’s historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace so the public would have a lasting tribute to this basketball genius and legend.

He received seven honorary degrees from various institutions. Red valued such honors so much that he kept a previous commitment to American International College by delivering its commencement speech on May 22, 1988, even though it prevented him from being at Boston Garden for the deciding game of the Celtics-Hawks’ best-of-seven thriller. On that day, AIC presented Auerbach with a Doctor of Humanities Honorary Degree. A week earlier he had received a Doctor of Arts Honorary Degree from Stonehill College. He has also received Honorary Doctorate Degrees in Humane Letters from Franklin Pierce College, on May 24, 1981, the University of Massachusetts (Boston), in 1982, and from Boston University, on May 13, 1984. In 1986, Central New England College honored him with an Honorary Doctorate Degree in Business Administration. On February 14, 1993, his alma mater, George Washington, bestowed an honorary Doctorate of Public Service Degree, and on June 9, 1998, the university celebrated Red's 80th birthday by unveiling a plaque and a bust of the legendary coach. This tribute is permanently attached to the exterior of the Smith Center, GW's athletic facility.

Red was the author of seven books. His first, Basketball for the Player, the Fan and Coach, has been translated into seven languages and is the largest-selling basketball book in print. His second book, co-authored with Paul Sann, was Winning the Hard Way, and he also penned a pair of publications written in conjunction with Joe Fitzgerald: Red Auerbach: An Autobiography and Red Auerbach On and Off the Court. In October, 1991, M.B.A.: Management by Auerbach, was co-authored with Ken Dooley. In 1994, Seeing Red – The Red Auerbach Story was written with Dan Shaughnessy. In October 2004, his latest book, Let Me Tell You a Story: A Lifetime in the Game, was co-authored with legendary sports writer John Feinstein. In 1987, an excellent instructional video entitled Winning Basketball became available to the public featuring the insight, thoughts, and philosophy of Red and three-time NBA Most Valuable Player and Celtics' captain Larry Bird. In 2005, he was recognized as an Honorary Master Chief at the U.S. Coast Guard.

Born in Brooklyn, New York, Red attended Eastern District High School in that city, attended Seth Low Junior College in New York, and George Washington University in the District of Columbia. He played three years of college basketball at GW, and was the team's leading scorer and a defensive specialist. He received a Bachelor of Science in Education in 1940 and a Master of Arts in Education from GW the following year.

Red and Dorothy Auerbach were married in 1941. They have two daughters: Nancy, who is married to former CNN anchorman Reid Collins, and Randy, who is Vice-President of Creative Affairs for Blue Tulip Productions in Hollywood, one granddaughter, Julie, who is married to Eric Fleiger. They also have a great-grandson, Peter Auerbach Fleiger, and two great-granddaughters, Hope and Noelle Fleiger.

Points per game are based on minimum of 50 games played.

Each individual's top scoring efforts as Celtics are in green. Also, due to the lack of recorded information, players who scored 40, 41 or 42 points in 1966-67, 40 in 1967-68, and 40 in 1968-69 are not tabulated. Each asterisk (*) denotes an overtime period.

All records are regular season only, and do not include those games played before the inception of the 24-second shot clock in 1954-55. Due to incomplete information, some records are left as unofficial; in these instances, highest and lowest possibilities are noted based on NBA records (for example, Boston's best 3rd quarter output is listed as 49 but could be as high as 50 or as low as another 49). These extremes are factual due to various research.

 Tied for best record in NBA

FACTS ON THE CELTICS

- The current ownership group is the first local ownership of the franchise since 1964 when Walter Brown owned the team.
- The Celtics averaged 101.4 points in 1954-55 to become the first team ever to average 100 points a game.
- The Celtics longest consecutive years in the playoffs were 19 seasons, from 1950-51 – 1968-69.
- The Celtics started the first all-black team on December 26, 1964. The starters were: K.C. Jones, Sam Jones, Willie Naulls, Satch Sanders and Bill Russell.
- Only two Celtics have posted 500 rebounds and 500 assists in a single season. John Havlicek did the feat four times (1970-72, 1969-70, 1972-73) and Larry Bird five times (1983-87, 1989-90).
- Paul Pierce became the fastest Celtic in team history to record 10,000 career points. He accomplished the feat on March 12, 2004 (vs. Indiana), in his 431st career game. Larry Bird reached 10,000 points in his 436th career game.
- Paul Pierce became the first Celtic ever to lead the NBA in total points, scoring 2,144 points in the 2001-02 season.
- Larry Bird is the only Celtic to record four consecutive 2,000-point seasons, from 1984-85 through 1987-88.
- The first game as a Celtic for Arnold 'Red' Auerbach, Bob Cousy and Chuck Cooper was on November 1, 1950.
- Bill Sharman holds the best single-game scoring effort for a rookie in Celtics history, 42 points on December 11, 1952.
- Dave Cowens holds the single-season high for most minutes played by a rookie in Celtics history with 3,076 minutes in the 1970-71 season.
- Chris Ford scored the NBA's first three-point field goal on October 12, 1979 vs. Houston.
- The franchise's first 100-point game came on February 25, 1949, at Boston 102, St. Louis 83.
- The team has remembered/honored members of the Celtics family, usually with a commemorative black band on the left shoulder strap of the team jersey, seven times in the history of the franchise: Walter Brown (1964-65), Bob Schmertz (1975-76), Joan Cohen (1989-90), Johnny Most (1993-94), Reggie Lewis (1993-94), Dorothy Auerbach (2000-01), and Dennis Johnson (2006-07).
- In remembrance of Arnold "Red" Auerbach, the Celtics wore a commemorative patch of a black shamrock with the nickname "Red" in green letters for the duration of the 2006-07 season.
